I'm so, so sorry. Terry and Glenda, were so kind and loving to us when we were wild and dumb, which is when we first moved to Newcastle. Terry and I worked together at NISD and had cafeteria duty together. He was a joy to work with and the kids loved him. When Amanda was a toddler and even in grade school, she would seek him out to run and get a hug from him. Terry always had big hugs for all the children. They all knew he sincerely cared for them. Jorge and I are praying for the family. Bubba, Julie and Lisa, please accept our condolences. Christy, I'm so sorry. I'm here if you need me.
